TELUGU LANGUAGE DAY

Telugu Language Day celebrations were held at D K Govt. Women's College

(Capital Information)
Nellore, Aug 29: Telugu Language Day celebrations were held at D.K. Govt. Women's College in the city. In this program Telugu teachers Dr. K. Karanasee invited the guests. The Vice Principal of the college Dr. A.V. Ramana Rao Gidugu Rammurthy explained the work of business language movement to the students. He said that if we want to learn any other language, we should have a good grip on the mother tongue.
Program Coordinator IQAC Co-ordinator Dr. PMV Prasad Garu said that it is the responsibility of the students to preserve the Telugu language by explaining to the students the importance of the Telugu language and the grammar verses that he had learned from his mother in his childhood.
The keynote speaker for this program, Mr. Paravastu Nagasai Suni Garu, Field Publicity Officer of Nellore District, said that the mother tongue sayings, hymns and poems convey the sweetness of the Telugu language and said that the beauty of the Telugu language is unmatched by any other language. He said that every poem in Telugu language contributes a lot to personality development and we should never forget our poems, culture and language. He said that our mother tongue binds us together like a mother binds us together and he was able to get high positions by studying in T e l u g u medium and all students should have a good understanding of the literature of the mother tongue. It is said that every woman is a family, if a woman develops love for her mother tongue, it will expand into a family and thus the mother tongue will remain the Amma language.

Deputy Director IAPR Mr. K. Sudarshan, who was the special guest of the program, said that Mr. Gidugu Rammurthy simplified Telugu, which was a scriptural language, and gave it to the Telugu people through his practical language movement.
Senior journalist Jayaprakash, who was another distinguished speaker in this program, said that it was because of Gidugu Rammurthy Panthuluguru's practical language work that the songs that came out from the mouths of the common people got literary respect and the Telugu song got the level of Oscar award. Annamayya and Ramadasula's kirtans are glorified as the crown jewel of the Telugu language. It has been informed that many Telugus have reached the highest heights.

In this program, Dr. V. Chenchuramalaiah said that it is the responsibility of each and every Telugu person to promote the respect of the Telugu language beyond the regions and the priority of the mother tongue should be recognized. He recited a poem about the superiority of the Telugu language. Telugu teachers Dr. K.V. Satyanarayana said that the source of every success we are achieving in our mother tongue today is Gidugu Rammurthy's language work. Hindi teacher Dr. Surendra said that language and culture are intertwined with each other and if one is neglected the other will fall into oblivion.
On this occasion, the Telugu song 'Tyyadanam' sung by them entertained everyone. On the occasion of Telugu Language Day, the winners of various competitions were presented with certificates and prizes by the chief guests. Students' cultural performances, poetry readings and poetry readings entertained everyone.
In this program, the teachers of the Telugu department, Dr. K. Karanasee, Dr. I. Subhashini, Dr. K.V. Satyanarayana, Dr. Y. Divya, Dr. K. Iswaramma, Reporters Sridhar Reddy and others participated.

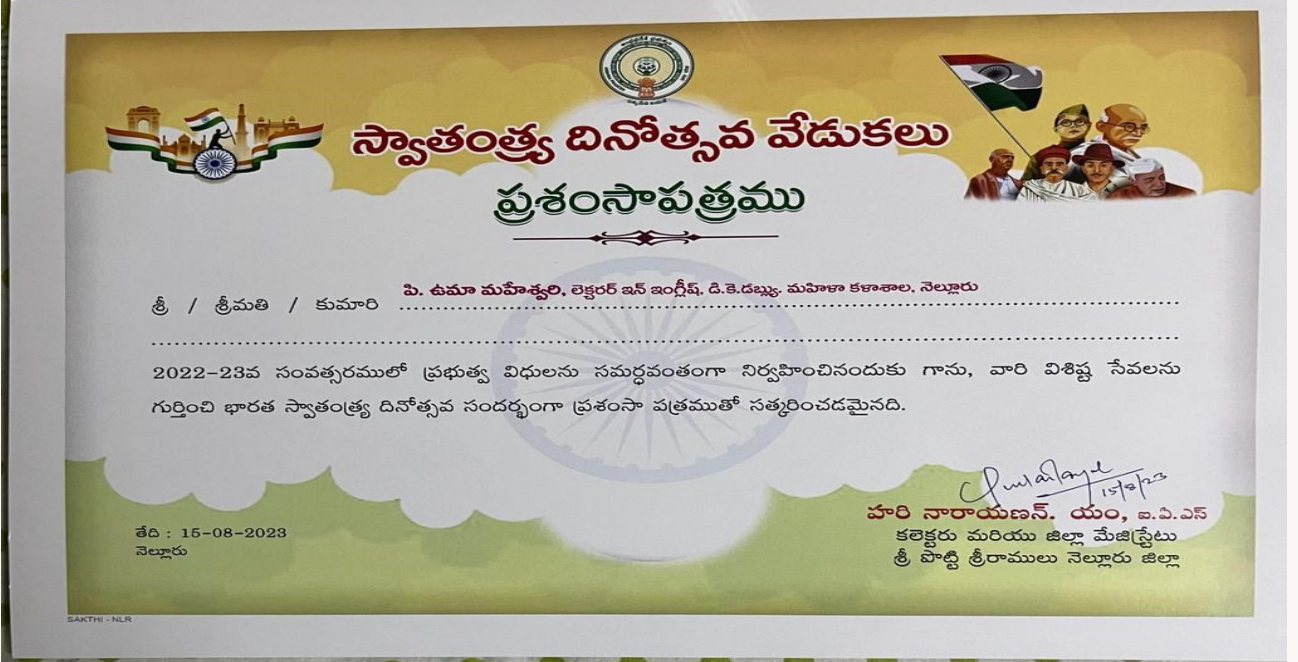

-A. Jaya Prakash

The Department of Telugu organized the celebrations of the Telugu Language Day. The vice-principal, the co-ordinator of IQAC, the staff members of Telugu department and students have participated in this program enthusiastically. The speakers laid emphasis on the importance of having our mother tongue Telugu as a subject, if not as a medium till class 12th. It is necessary that we strive hard together for the development of Telugu language
